

Building Futures in Alberta Financial Literacy in Education Symposium

Wilder Institute/Calgary Zoo

Program

November 3-4, 2023

The Canadian Foundation for Economic Education (CFEE) in partnership with Alberta Education are pleased you have join us to celebrate National Financial Literacy Month!

Helping Students Prepare for their Financial Future

Friday, Nov.3

- 6:30-7:00 Registration Desk Opens
- 7:00-8:00 Welcome and Introductions: Gary Rabbior, CFEE President and CEO
- Symposium Keynote: Gordon Stein: (author of "Cashflow Cookbook") - "Zero to $1 million in 60 Minutes" covering the remarkable state of financial wellness in Canada, the challenges that Canadians have applying traditional finance principles, and the power of thinking differently about money and how simple changes can add a million to the retirement wealth of teachers and their students, all with minimal effort and minimal sacrifice.
- 8:00-10:00 Wine and Cheese Mix and Mingle Reception

Saturday, Nov.4

- 8:30-9:00 Registration Desk Opens – coffee, tea, juice
- 9:00-10:00 Session 1: Keynote – Dr. Moira Somers - We Should Talk -- What Educators Need to Know about Financial Capability and Mental Health
- 10:00-10:15 Refreshment Break
- 10:15-11:00 Session 2: Building Futures in Alberta Overview
 - Alberta Education – Kevin A. Maynard, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer
- 11:00-11:45 Session 3: Building Futures in Alberta – World Cafe
- 11:45 – 12:30 LUNCH: *Students Speak Up!
- 12:30-1:30 Session 4: Michelle Jones – Executive Director Yellowhead East Community Futures - Integrating Enterprising Skills: What They Are and How They Can Help
- 1:30-2:00 Session 5: Noah Booth: Author - A Rich Future – Essential Financial Concepts for Youth – virtual
- 2:00-2:30 Session 6: Georgina Twoyoungmen (Director of Anukatha Hotu Iethka Society) – Financial Literacy through an Indigenous Lens
- 2:30+ Closing Remarks

*RESCHEDULED - EDMONTON: April 11-12, 2024